

2023: Our Work by the Numbers

Active projects

29

Funders

21

Subawardees

32

Resources and tools created

183 including

Hours of technical assistance provided

Over 6,000

Conferences attended

45

Presentations delivered

21

25

eModule courses

27

research and evaluation tools such as survey tools and interview protocols

55

individual eModules

As well as a full range of other resources: facilitator guides, student activities, training guides, program management toolkits, and workshops

2023 People by the Numbers

Individuals impacted directly

17,390

Individuals impacted indirectly<sup>1</sup>

2,308,348

Hours provided by employee volunteers from corporate partners to support students in NIWL projects

14,425

Participants who graduated from or completed a program in 2023

1,138

Participants who gained employment, including 19 internships and 8 apprenticeships

303

Participants who enrolled in workforce development services

297

Awarded in scholarships to 53 students

$74,000

Reentry program participants who did NOT recidivate<sup>2</sup>

Over 97%

<sup>1</sup> This number includes over 2.2 million students participating in Women in STEM2D sessions using FHI 360-created activities, as well as parents and other family members of program participants engaged beyond direct program enrollment.

<sup>2</sup> Our partners self-report to FHI 360 on their awareness of participants' re-involvement with the justice system.